ORDER

- A. The parties' Proposed Pretrial Order (doc. # 360) is ACCEPTED SUBJECT TO THE LIMITATIONS IN THIS ORDER.
- B. The Court will consider the evidentiary objections raised in the parties' trial briefs and motions in limine and address them at a later date. For now, the parties should proceed on the assumption that the challenged evidence will be presented to the Court, if only to allow the Court to make a more informed decision on the motions. The Court also notes that NCR has withdrawn its objections to Georgia-Pacific's use of deposition testimony from the Columbia Casualty litigation.
- C. Trial presentations are subject to time limits. Georgia Pacific will be allotted 25 hours of time at trial; NCR and International Paper will each be allotted 12.5 hours; and Weyerhaeuser will be allotted 1.5 hours. Time charged to a side includes the time used for any opening statements and closing arguments; examination of live witnesses; presentation of designated testimony from witnesses appearing by deposition or other recorded testimony; presentation of any other evidence; and time spent to resolve a party's objections to particular trial exhibits or trial testimony.

D. Trial is still scheduled to begin Tuesday, February 19, 2013 at 8:30 a.m.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: February 7, 2013
